The Chairman Speaks:

In the September issue it was mentioned in this column that our membership had grown from 1,200 in 1928 to 4,000 in 1967, and with our modern and up-to-date improvements the Club cannot fail to progress.

However, I would like to stress that despite our present progress our members have an obligation to support the Club — yes, it is your Club — to the utmost, as without the full support from our members we will not be able to keep up the high standard of service to which we have all become accustomed.

Furthermore, it must not be forgotten that commitments, financial and otherwise, also have to be met.

From time to time it has been pointed out in the advertising sections of this magazine that the cuisine and service in the Lounge, Dining Room and Buffet is of the highest standards, so I therefore commend you to give your whole-hearted support to all sections of the Club and enjoy your membership.

Word from Ray Vaughan from Townsville, who is enjoying a short holiday there prior to returning for a holiday in New Caledonia. Also from Russ Williams, who is staying for three weeks at Surfers Paradise and, from reports received, is also enjoying himself. Some members are lucky.

OVERSEAS NEWS

Our Chairman, Frank Carberry, now back on the job after his recent illness, has received word from members Frank McGlynn and Jack Fitz. Frank expects to be back in Sydney for Christmas. Jack Fitz and his wife are having a wonderful time touring the Continent and visiting operas and ballets, as well as the famous Horse Show in Vienna.

CONGRATULATIONS, OS. BATES

Club member Os. Bates, who is publicity officer for the Newcastle Jockey Club, had a hectic time during the Newcastle Racing Carnival, the Black and White Cameron Handicap on Wednesday 13th September, the Gold Cup on Saturday 16th September, plus the Ladies Fashion Fiesta, the televising of each race on Saturday, and the final of the football match all this kept him a very busy man indeed. Nice work, Os.

ON THE SICK LIST

Members will be sorry to hear that popular bookmaker Gersh Fienberg is in the War Memorial Hospital, Waverley. Frank Paul, whilst recovering from a broken arm, had another fall resulting in a broken hip. To both members we wish you a speedy recovery.

NEWCASTLE RACING

Club Committee members, Les Tidmarsh, Geoff Eastment, John McKell and Peter McGrath headed a large contingent of members to Newcastle for the Racing Carnival. Bill Sellen, Tom Farrar, Jack Keogh, Bunny Durkin, Harold Hill, Arthur McCrae, Homer Jones, Charles Baker, Andre Ozoux, Bill Sinclair, Jack MacDonald, Bill Mulligan, Ken Gayfer and Claude Parker were among others, and all seemed to enjoy the famed Newcastle hospitality. President Bill Clark and Committee certainly went out of their way, aided by stalwart Brian O'Donnell, secretary of Newcastle Tattersall's Club.

OUR CONDOLENCES

It was with regret that we heard of the death of Mrs. Jean Spence, the wife of Dr. Barry Spence and daughter of Jack and Bab Dexter on September 12th.

SALESMAN OF THE YEAR

Clare Higson, managing director of Precision Golf Forging Ltd., has won the 1967 Distinguished Salesman Award for outstanding export achievements.

P.G.F. pioneered the export of Australian-made golf clubs six years ago, and today is exporting to 68 countries including Scotland, the home of golf.

Tom Crow, international marketing manager of P.G.F., received the award for Mr. Higson at a special dinner to mark the occasion, as Clare is currently overseas on an export promotional tour in the United States.

Our congratulations to you, Clare, on attaining this honour.

CLUB MEMBER PROUD FATHER

Dr. Hyman Owen is a proud father indeed. His son Dr. Earl Ronald Owen recently was appointed a James Fairfax Surgical Research Fellow with the Children's Medical Research Foundation to carry out research into the transplantation of organs in children.

Dr. Owen is a graduate of Sydney University. He was recently appointed as Hunterian Professor of Surgery by The Royal College of Surgeons of England, of which he is a Fellow. He is also Assistant Honorary Surgeon at the Royal Alexandra Hospital. Early this year Dr. Owen returned to Sydney after six years of surgical training at the Paediatric Surgical Research in Britain.

Since then he has made a trip abroad during which he read a paper on transplanting organs from newborn babies and children at an International Paediatric Surgical Conference in Bremen.

He has also used these techniques successfully in grafting hearts, kidneys, and livers in animals.

He is the youngest doctor to receive the award of the Hunterian Professorship from The Royal College of Surgeons of England.

Our congratulations to Dr. Hyman Senior in having such an accomplished son.

FAREWELL

Recently, members Dick Dowling, Gordon Walton and Wilf Ransom, all of Dunlop Rubber Australia, entertained colleagues in the Club to farewell George Somerfield of Dunlop Rubber England, who had been visiting Australia on business.

Full use was made of the Club's facilities. George was also introduced to the poker machines which are not (legally) used in England.

PROUD GRANDFATHER

John Rogan is all smiles these days. The reason? Daughter Robin presented him with a fine grandson. Congratulations, John.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your request to send a cheque, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it ordinarily impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to union laws, provincial laws, town laws, liquor laws, sister-in-laws, mother-in-laws, and outlaws. Through these laws I am compelled to pay an income tax, super tax, excise tax, sales tax, tariff tax, railway tax, petrol tax and amusement tax (of which I have none). Even my brains are taxed and I am required to get a business licence, car licence, truck licence, radio licence, not to mention a marriage licence and a dog licence. I am required to contribute to every society and organisation, which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life, to women's relief and unemployed relief, also to every hospital and charitable organisation in the country.

For my own safety I am required to carry life insurance, property insurance, liability insurance, burglar insurance, accident insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance and fire insurance. My business is so governed that I do not know today, nor can I find out, who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, rejected, disrespected, examined and re-examined, informed, required, summonsed, fined, commanded and compelled, until I provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race. I can tell you honestly, that except for the miracle that happened, I could not enclose this cheque.

The wolf that comes to so many doors nowadays, had pups in my kitchen. I sold them and here is the money.

*Yours woefully,
OWEN MUCHMORE.*

SHAKEDOWN IN HOLLOW TRAMWAY WIN

Great sprinters have advanced in the past from victory in Tattersall's time honored Tramway Handicap to success in the Epsom a few weeks later, but it is doubtful if a more spectacular win than Shakedown's at our Club meeting at Randwick on September 9 has been recorded.

Shakedown's final burst which gave him victory by three lengths was reminiscent of the performances of Chatham, Shannon, Bernborough, and more recently Chantal's runaway wins last year.

At one moment Foresight, Prince Jandiker, Mullen's Lane and Royal Rene were streaking away in the lead with Shakedown a somewhat distant fifth, but as soon as jockey W. Burnett gave him rein he caught them as if they had reached a dead-end. Prince Jandiker battled on gamely for second and Mullen's Lane was a neck away third.

Shakedown has made a rapid rise from mediocre to class form. He won two Rosehill Two-year-olds last year, but it was not until last June that he emerged from graduation company with a success in a Randwick Peakhurst Trial. But with that success he adopted the hall-mark of quality for his future prospects when he won by six lengths, easing up.

He won two more Rosehill 7½ furlongs Welters in July and August and then his Tramway Handicap victory put the unmistakable stamp of class upon his form standard, and his admirers are now guessing as to just how far this vast form improvement will carry him.

MARE WITH GOOD BACKGROUND AND FUTURE

Chanel, winner of the Furious Stakes at Tattersall's Club's meeting at Randwick on Saturday, September 9, had a happy Wagga background for Club member, Mr. Frank Duval.

Mr. Duval is accepted as Australia's biggest Turf plunger when he is away from his Eastern commitments to spare the time for racing in Sydney.

She could be called a mare with a lucrative background and a bright future on Sydney racecourses.

Mr. Duval has been a Tattersall's Club member for two years.

At Wagga Cup meeting last May he was losing heavily on the first day's racing, but Chanel opened her account with a maiden win on the second day, followed by success in the Wagga Cup with What Fun whom he had backed for figures varying up to $40,000.

The rider who brought home this colossal punt was Neville Voigt, apprenticed to a successful trainer and member of Tattersall's Club for five years,

Harry Plant, who made Bernborough one of the greatest champions of Australian Turf history.

Voigt was apprenticed to Harry's stable for five years and elected to remain as number one jockey when he outgrew his indentures. He has good reason to be glad for this decision, for Harry has tutored him like a father in the ways of the Turf and Voigt has prospered, not only in good rides for the stable, but with remunerative engagements from other Sydney stables.

In our Randwick Furious Stakes on September 9 Voigt slipped Chanel out of the barrier first, eased her temporarily and when Pennyette and others who were prominent in the lead early ran out of steam he brought up Chanel with a well-timed run and she won the money.

Chanel is a well bred four year old mare by Chatsworth, sire of dual Derby winner, Golden Sovereign, who unfortunately broke down when he was set for a successful staying career.

Chanel is trained by former New Zealander J. P. Hayes who has had a successful career in a short settling-in period in Sydney and is assured of a prosperous future.

He also trained Chantal, winner of the last Epsom.

Mr. Duval was not at Randwick to indulge in his customary spectacular plunge on Chanel and her price eased from 11/2 to 13/2, but the writer was told that his money was well represented.

Neville Voigt displayed perspicacity and a knowledge of horses when, after Bay Cobbler had courageously won the Spring Handicap, he realised he had injured his off-fore leg. He quickly dismounted and led his horse back to scale. Bay Cobbler scored in a thrilling three way photo-finish with Sky Sailor and Royal Marine, giving him his fourth successive win, and it will be ill fortune if Spring prospects of such a promising stayer are affected by the injury.

CHEERS AMONG COMMITTEEMEN

There were mild but happy celebrations in the Committee Room at Tattersall's Club's Randwick meeting on Saturday, September 9, when Lecture On won the mile and a half Novice Handicap.

He was an outsider starting at 20 to 1, and he is owned by Mr. Wal McCamley, relative of popular Club committee-man, Mr. Arthur McCamley.

Roman Consul wins his first important race for Mr. Len P. Plasto in the Tattersall's Chelmsford Stakes at Randwick on September 9, narrowly beating champion interstate performer Winfreux. Mr. Plasto is a Club member of 33 years.

Lecture On had run up a long string of minor places and when he went out to contest this race was still a maiden.

However, as he had had two seconds and a third for his three previous starts, he still had some admirers who stuck to him in the betting, especially among the friends of the McCamley family.

Lecture On began his unlucky placings as a two-year-old—one of them to Garcon who went on to success in the Canterbury Guineas and a weight-for-age event.

Throughout three years and starting off his four year old season Lecture On continued his disappointments, but a real test of stamina on a dead track at the Club's Randwick meeting enabled him to make amends for all disappointments.

Rounding the home turn he swept forward after the 11 to 8 favorite Great Heart, and showing the greater determination over the last furlong defeated Great Heart by half a length.

Both Mr. W. W. McCamley and his trainer, Freddie Hood, deserved success if only for their courageous persistence in face of so many defeats, and both were warmly congratulated by Committee personnel and Club members.

Lecture on was rated so high that as a three year old he was an entrant for the Derbies and all the great Spring handicaps and the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups.

MEMBER OF 40 YEARS WINS A CLUB RACE

Tattersall's Club's race meetings have provided nice turf plums for Sir Frank Packer, managing director of The Daily Telegraph and associated papers.

Sir Frank has been a member of the Club for almost 40 years.

He shares ownership of two good horses, Foresight and Secret Passion, with Mr. L. K. S. Martin, an executive of Consolidated Press and an organiser in the syndicate which sent Gretel to contest the last America's Cup.

With Foresight Sir Frank and Mr. Keith Martin won the Carrington Stakes at the Club's midsummer meeting at Randwick in December, and although that horse failed in a Tramway Handicap bid at our last meeting on September 9, Secret Passion made amends later in the day with an easy win in the Club Welter.

Secret Passion had won only two races, a Newcastle Maiden and a Canterbury Encourage, but his two and a half lengths Welter victory running away indicated advancing prospects in much better than welter company in the not too distant future.

Sir Frank Frank raced Columnist, a great stayer twenty years ago, who won the Caulfield, Williamstown, and Sydney Turf Club Cups carrying 9.7. Columnist was beaten by a short half head by Dark Marne in the 1948 Sydney Cup after his jockey, Harold Badger, had dropped his whip a furlong from home just when one stroke probably would have turned that narrow defeat into victory.

Sir Frank bred Columnist and since has had nothing to measure up to his standard. He also bred Secret Passion, who is by a Star Kingdom horse, Secret Kingdom, who was prevented from racing by an injury but already is being represented by some highly promising stock.

Secret Passion is trained by Arthur Ward, a crack jockey a few years ago, who is now making his name as a Randwick trainer. He has been a member of Tattersall's Club for three years.

ROMAN CONSUL WINS THE CHELMSFORD STAKES

To land a weight for age classic like the Chelmsford Stakes with a novice winner is no mean feat, but Randwick trainer T. J. Smith achieved this with Roman Consul at Tattersall's Club's Randwick meeting on September 9.

In three prior starts Roman Consul had been successful only once in a Warwick Farm East Hills mile Novice on August 26, but suddenly improving to a brilliant standard of form, he gained a striking victory by a neck over the highly performed Winfreux in the last two strides of the race.

Trainer Tommy Smith, who has been a Club member for 19 years, had twice before won the Chelmsford Stakes—in 1960 with Tulloch and 1965 with Pyramus—but he was more elated than before when Roman Consul completed the hat-trick for his stable on September 9.

One reason for this was that Roman Consul had saved the day for Tommy Smith. His stable-mate, Jupiter, first string for the Derby, had suffered an injury which put him out of Spring training. Roman Consul was the substitute who had to do the job for the Smith establishment.

And how worthily he rose to the occasion!

Winfreux was the even money favorite for the race on a list of deeds which ranked him among the outstanding horses of the past two seasons. He had won the Stradbroke and Doomben Ten Thousand as a three year old and the Doomben Cup at four years in record time for 11 furlongs of 2.13 4/5. Besides this he had won at weight-for-age in Melbourne and Brisbane, and at his last start before coming to Sydney for the Chelmsford had led all the way for a win in the 10½ furlongs Exhibition Handicap at Eagle Farm, Brisbane, with 9.11 on his back.

Some punters were critical about his trying to lead all the way in the Chelmsford with 9.4 on a soft, slow track, but he is a long strider who likes to set his own speed and that is what his Queensland jockey, L. Rowe, was letting him do. He had only one prior run at Randwick in last year's Metropolitan, a mile and five furlongs in which he seemed to handle our turns awkwardly (although we race in the same direction as Brisbane), and he finished only fourth to Duo.

He showed the same waywardness when he had shaken off challenges by Gay Gauntlet and The Snowburner in the Chelmsford, and probably he was not stretching out with the same determination he had shown in his best races when Roman Consul advanced from near the rear to issue his challenge in the final furlong.

This enabled Roman Consul, with his 5 lb. allowance reducing his weight to a meagre 7.4, to catch and defeat him. But to go down at a two stone weight concession to such a promising three year old was no disgrace so far as Winfreux was concerned.

It was a slow track as the time, 1 56.1 for nine furlongs proved, so it could be emphasised that both Roman Consul in triumph and Winfreux in defeat were highly impressive.

The performance revealed Winfreux as still a great racehorse with bright Spring prospects in Sydney and Melbourne in the next two months.

It was gratifying to a host of friends to see Mr. Len P. Plasto, owner of Roman Consul, get a really good horse at last. He has been a supporter of the Turf in a big way for many years, but this three-year-old is the first to whose future he can look forward with confidence. He won the Queensland Derby with Bahram Star last year, but Roman Consul is going to be a much better proposition.

Trainer Tommy Smith bought Roman Consul for 2000 guineas as a yearling in New Zealand to race solely in his own name. It was intended to be the first horse solely owned by him since he won the 1949 A.J.C. Derby with a maiden, Playboy. But Mr. Plasto, who raced Bahram Star in his stable, wanted a horse and he let him purchase Roman Consul.

In winning at weight-for-age one jump from a Warwick Farm Novice, Roman Consul followed in the footsteps of a great champion, Peter Pan, who landed the Hill Stakes in 1932 after dead-heating for first with Babili in the self-same Warwick Farm Novice which Roman Consul won only by his Roman nose from Delrepar on August 26.

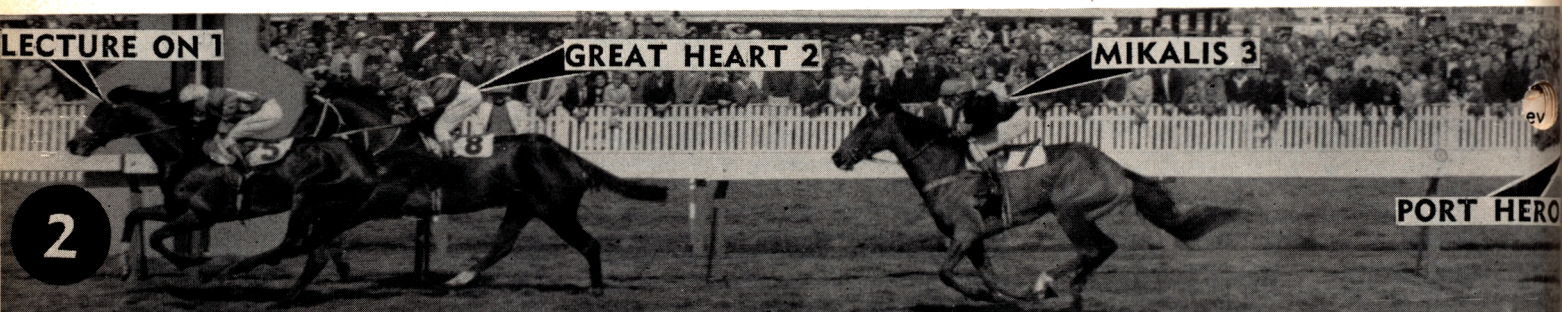

Len Plasto's belated acquisition of Roman Consul could have a good omen.

The late Mr. Len Haley was without a New Zealand youngster on one of Tom's returns from yearling buying in that country. So Tom allotted him the yearling by Khorassan from Florida. It turned out to be Tulloch, winner of a record $220,247!

RESULTS OF PRINCIPAL RACES AT OUR SEPTEMBER MEETING

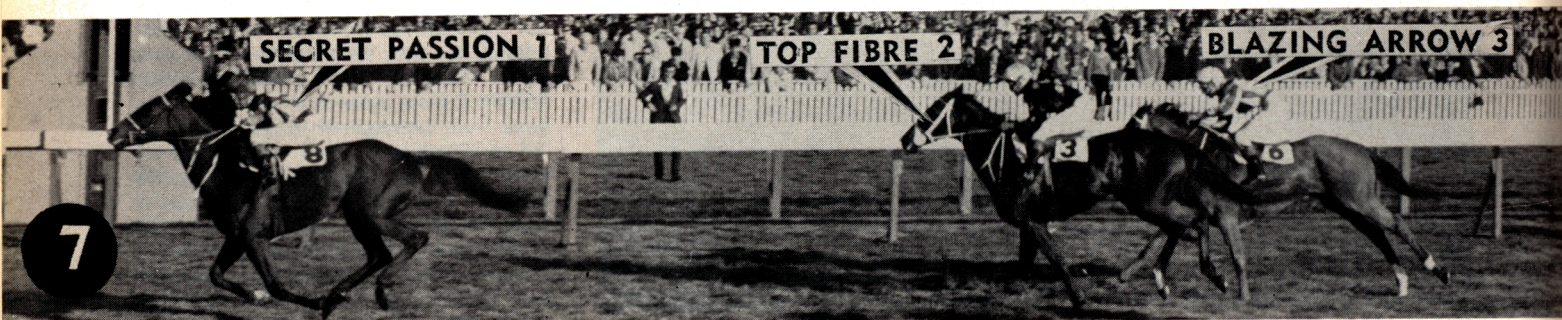

Absent was the customary bold plunge on Mr. Frank Duval's Chanel when she won the Furious Stakes for mares and fillies.

Lecture On, hitherto a maiden after two years racing into many minor places gained a welcome win for Mr. Wal W. McCamley, a relative of Mr. Arthur McCamley who is a member of Tattersall's Committee and also on the Sub-Committee which handles the Club's racing affairs.

Shakedown's brilliant burst to win Tattersall's Club's Tramway Handicap at Randwick on September 9 by three lengths was the best sprint performance of the current new racing season.

Sir Frank Packer, a member for nearly 40 years, had an easy win in Tattersall's Welter Handicap at Randwick on September 9 with up-and-coming galloper, Secret Passion.

ROUND ROBIN AT NEWCASTLE

The highlight of an eventful month was the visit to Newcastle to compete for the Ern Smith Trophy.

President Fuz Porter led 23 members to Newcastle to compete in a Round Robin for the Ern Smith Trophy, inaugurated by Newcastle Tattersall's Club and played for at Newcastle City Bowling Club on 12th-14th September. Our Club did not fare so well, finishing in fourth place, with Newcastle the winners, City Tattersall's second and Canberra Club third.

Full marks to Newcastle for their wonderful hospitality and excellent organisation which ensured a trouble-free programme which never flagged. Members and their wives were guests of the Newcastle Jockey Club at the Cameron Handicap on 13th September, which was an enjoyable day's racing for all, although profitable for few.

An official dinner was held at Newcastle Tattersall's Club at the conclusion of the meeting, when trophies were presented. President Fuz Porter, when replying to the toast of the visitors, brought down the house with some of the best of his inimitable stories.

On Thursday, 24th August, Tattersall's played a team from the Australian Hotels Association at Rose Bay Bowling Club, achieving victory by the narrow margin of three shots with Tattersall's 247 and A.H.A. 244. Trophy winners for Tattersall's were D. Morrissey, J. Peters and L. Malouf, and for A.H.A., W. Chamberlain and a former Governor General, Sir William McKell, who was playing as a visitor.

A welcome to David Morrissey, a new member playing his first game with Tattersall's Club Bowling Club.

It was the last day of office for Norman Mills, the retiring president of Rose Bay Bowling Club, who came along especially to welcome the visitors — a gesture which was very much appreciated.

Thursday, 31st August, saw our return to Double Bay after an absence of four years. There was a record attendance of 58 players, with trophy winners being L. Barrell, M. Barnett, L. Burke and J. Nevill. This was an occasion on which there could be no complaints about the handicapping by our selector, Nick Solomon. Games finished 26-22, 28-22, 24-19, 21-19, and 17-15.

A. Gibson and S. Clements defeated J. Schofield and T. Anderson in the third round of the Handicap Pairs.

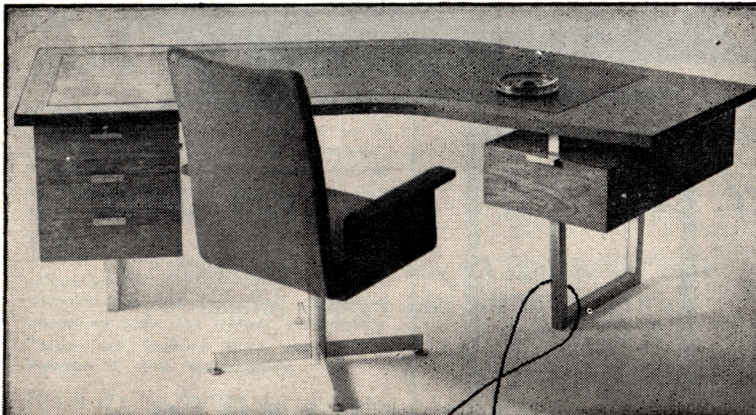

There will not be any play at City Club until early in the new year. The game arranged at Moore Park for 7th September in lieu had to be abandoned due to rain.

The winners at Rose Bay on 21st September were B. Saw, G. Booth and L. Malouf with 25 points. Scoring was good all round with 23, 22, and 21 points.

A. Gibson and S. Clements defeated S. Chatterton and M. Barnett in the semi-final of the Handicap Pairs, and now meet D. G. Cohen and G. Lovett in the final.

On the home front there was an understandably reduced attendance at Waverley on 14th September. Trophy winners were S. Davis, G. Booth and H. Davis with 17 points.

Our best wishes to our honorary publicity officer, Harry Davis, and his wife, who left by air recently for an extended tour of the East.

GOLF NOTES

About 80 members braved the rain to play at Manly Golf Club in the September outing. Rain could not dampen the spirit of the happy band of golfers, even though wild ducks were sighted swimming near the 16th.

President Geoff Eastment found a seagull "shot down" by one of our golfers — the golfer said it was his first "birdie".

Winning scores listed below reveal "horses for courses" as the best scores were from Manly members who are members of our club.

The warm welcome by Manly officials and the excellent catering made up for the bag of wet clothes at the end of the day.

Next golf outing is at Bonnie Doon on the 5th October, followed by our championship day in November at Concord. More details of these by mail.

Results at Manly:

Singles Event: First, John Garrity (36 points); visitor, Colin Kaye (32); runners-up, Bob Bradshaw (35), John Rowles (35).

Four Ball: First, Kevin Kingsell and Barry Shields (42 points); second, Kevin Melam and John Rowles (40).

Campbelltown Race Meeting

Campbelltown Picnic Race Club is holding its third successive meeting at the "Hume" race track, Appin, on Saturday, November 4th, 1967. This is the closest picnic race meeting to Sydney, and members of the Club who have attended report very favourably on the success of the meeting.

There is betting on Sydney and interstate as well as the picnic events. Food and refreshments are available at the track, which is set in delightful rural surroundings which lend a truly picnic atmosphere to the meeting.

We can recommend this meeting to members and their families.

For information and nominations, write Private Box No. 127, P.O., Campbelltown, 2560, or phone Campbelltown 2 0406.

TOP APPOINTMENT FOR CLUB MEMBER

Preparations for Australia's television and radio coverage of the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City are being made 12 months ahead.

TCN-9's Manager, Alex Baz, is now in Mexico City with the ABC's National Sporting Director, Bernard Kerr and ABC Engineer Ken Middleton.

The group has gone to Mexico City to study the television and radio facilities available for next year's Olympic Games and to organise coverage for Australia and New Zealand, camera and commentators' positions at all venues and the despatch of the material back to Australia.

The Australian group will be working with other television representatives from the United States, Great Britain, Europe and Russia.

Alex Baz acted as television supervisor for Australia and New Zealand at the 1964 Tokyo Olympics and was responsible for the Channel Nine coverage of the 1960 Rome Games and the 1956 Melbourne Olympics.

Because of the excellent quality of the satellite picture received in Australia of the recent America's Cup, Alex is confident that Australians will see a number of top Olympic events live by satellite.

The events transmitted live by satellite will, of course, be entirely dependent on the cost and the arrangements made by the group now in Mexico City.

REFINED AND CRUDE

Some of the traffic cops are so mean, they wet their pencil to make the charge look as black as possible.

"No girl ever made a fool of me."
"Who was it then?"

Passing through a military hospital, a visitor saw a badly wounded soldier from one of the Irish regiments.

"When are you going to send that man home?" he enquired.

"He ain't going home: he's going up to the front again," an orderly informed him.

"Up to the front!" exclaimed the visitor. "Why, the man is in terrible shape."

"Yes," replied the orderly, "but he thinks he knows who done it."

Diner: "I can't eat this stuff. Send me the manager."

Waiter: "It's no use, he won't eat it either."

"You acted like a fool when I asked you to marry me."

"I was a fool."

"The boss says he isn't in. Is there any message?"

"Yeh. Tell him I never called."

Driver: "I wasn't going forty miles an hour, nor thirty, nor even twenty."

Judge: "Here now, steady up, young fellow, or you'll be backing into something."

"Yeas, sir," said the bald-headed barber to his Scotch customer, "here is a preparation I can recommend. It makes the hair grow in twenty-four hours."

"Aweel," said the Scot, "ye can gi'e the top o' your head a wee rub, and I'll be back in the morning to see if you're tellin' the truth."

Interfering Old Lady (to Tommy): "Surely your mother could find pieces of material more like your trousers, when she patches them."

Tommy: "That ain't a patch. That's me."

Social Worker: "Do you believe in the transmigration of souls?"

Fisherman: "No sir. I likes 'em fried in the ordinary way."

Angry Customer: "I say, that horse you sold me has dropped down dead."

Dealer: "Can't 'elp that, sir. 'E never did that while I 'ad 'im."

A pedestrian wants to know: How you can possibly get across the road when the cars keep coming at you like this?

HANDBALL

Finalists for the Winooka Trophy, Bruce Galea (—29) and Robert Hill (+18), had a grand match which resulted in a win for Bruce by 41-38. This is a tribute to our handicapper to bring the scores so close, and of course is also a tribute to our Club champion, Bruce Galea, to overcome a handicap of Minus 29 as against his opponent on Plus 18, giving him a start of 47 points.

The match therefore was on handicaps of 70 up, and after deducting handicaps at the finish resulted in the final score of 41-38.

It was most interesting to see the champion apply such concentration and systematically wear down his opponent. He scored 70 points to 20, and did not wait for Robert to make errors. He hit straight-out winners and crashed his way through to victory, and Robert did a wonderful job to score 20 points against such an onslaught.

Bruce Galea was not only the winner but a fine sportsman, and both men played for this trophy in the finest tradition of our Handball Club.

We took a long time to complete this event, but the climax made it worth while waiting for.

A word of thanks to the donors of this trophy, Ted Forrest and Steven Blau, a grand tribute to the memory of the late Joe Matthews who was a former Committeeman of Tattersall's Club and the proud owner of that great champion racehorse Winooka.

The "Good Idea" trophy is now progressing and many matches have been played. Before listing these results we take this opportunity of thanking Arthur Browning for again making this trophy available, and we look forward to some most enjoyable matches.

Like the "Winooka" Trophy the "Good Idea" trophy is named after a very good racehorse, and I refer to "Good Idea" who was owned and raced by Arthur Browning and his father. Good Idea won many races for them, giving them much pleasure and enjoyment.

The handballers are now sharing in this pleasure and enjoyment, for which we thank you, Arthur.
